

Finckh Technology / Infusion Solutions

Bedford, New Hampshire

A 12,000 SF Research and Development / Office building, the facility was designed and constructed to accommodate a European owned business that adheres to long-term ownership efficiencies and sustainable construction standards.

The building changed tenancy at a later day and a specialty medical service company took up residence.