

Summit Packaging Dover, New Hampshire

This corporate office building is an addition to an existing manufacturing facility. The 10,000 SF renovation to the existing facility and this 30,000 SF addition allowed for Summit to move into a completed complex, accommodating all of their facility requirements.

Along with a detailed project program, the desire for the building is to provide an attractive "statement of values" to extend to visiting customers and vendors.

